Registration

Have you recently moved to Darmstadt or relocated to a new dwelling place within Darmstadt?

If so, please do pay attention to the following matters:

- Within 14 days, you need to register at the department “Einwohnerwesen und Wahlen” (Department for Civil Registration and Elections).
- Each relocation to a new dwelling place has to be registered. This rule applies all over Germany to all residents alike.
- The registration always has to be performed at the place of your new residence.

What do I need the registration confirmation for?

After your registration, the department “Einwohnerwesen und Wahlen” will provide you with a registration confirmation. This registration confirmation serves as proof of address.

The registration confirmation is required, for instance, in order to

- open a bank account
- matriculate at a university
- conclude contracts or
- obtain a residence authorisation.
